Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem...and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Matthew 2:1, 9-11

Growing up near New York City had some nice perks, especially around Christmastime: the decorations and the giant Christmas tree in Rockefeller Plaza, the smell of roasted chestnuts available from food vendors, street musicians singing carols, the Radio City Music Hall Christmas show with the Rockettes. So many things to see and experience!

But my favorite Christmas tradition was going to Lincoln Center to see Amahl and the Night Visitors. Amahl is a children's operetta designed for television. Gian Carlo Menotti wrote the libretto for Amahl and the NBC Opera Theatre premiered it on December 24, 1951. Menotti took his inspiration from Heironymus Bosch's painting, Adoration of the Magi, which shows three kings offering their gifts to the Christ Child who sits on his mother's lap. Every December, my family would sit in Avery Fisher Hall, surrounded by lots of other families, and watch the story of Amahl unfold.

Amahl is a crippled shepherd boy who walks with the aid of a crutch. He is a dreamer and prone to exaggerate the truth a little too often! His poor, widowed mother is at the end of her rope trying to make ends meet. She is harried and short-tempered with Amahl for most of the operetta, which causes some very comedic moments (Amahl is filled with funny one-liners!).

For many nights, Amahl sees a giant star in the winter sky. Of course, his mother doesn't believe him. Then, late one night, there is a knock at the door. Amahl answers and tells his mother that there are three kings waiting outside. Again, she doesn't believe him. So, imagine her surprise when the three kings and a page boy enter her house asking for a place to rest!

When his mother goes to gather firewood, Amahl is left alone with the kings. He peppers them with questions. King Kaspar, who is quite deaf, takes a liking to Amahl and shows him the special things he carries with him in a special box: precious stones, colored beads, and black licorice!

The kings also show Amahl and his mother the wondrous gifts they bear for the Christ child: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They describe the kingdom he will establish, a kingdom of equality, peace, and justice. Amahl's mother admits she has waited her whole life for such a king.

Having nothing in the house, Amahl's mother sends him to rouse the neighbors who will provide food and entertainment for the kings. The villagers arrive (with live animals inside the theatre!) and offer the kings food and wine. They dance and sing for the kings late into the night. At last, the kings send them home and everyone rests.

Except Amahl's mother. She is awake, obsessed by the treasures of the kings. She steals some of the gold to ease her poverty and to feed Amahl. But she gets caught by the page who never trusted her or liked Amahl. As the page struggles with Amahl's mother, Amahl rushes to her defense and pleads with the kings to release her. He confesses that he is the one who lies and cheats – not his mother – and he should be punished, not her.

Amahl's mother gives back the gold, but Amahl believes they should send a gift to the newborn king. He offers his crutch, the only thing he owns, because "Who knows, the child may need it!" As he hands over his crutch he is miraculously healed, his lameness gone, and he begins to jump and dance! The kings believe this is a sign that the Christ Child is born, and they hurry to leave. Amahl wants to go with the kings, to thank the Christ Child, and his mother lets him go. The operetta ends with Amahl on the back of Kaspar's camel, waving goodbye to his mother, and following the star to the Christ Child.

That story never gets old! The coming of Jesus is a special story, filled with wonder and miracles. The hope for a better world is a promise fulfilled in the birth of Christ: it is a promise both here and now, and not yet.

This year we are telling the story of Amahl and the Night Visitors at Federated Church. Join us at 5 PM on Christmas Eve as actors bring the timeless story to life! Share some hospitality and cheer with us at the 6 PM potluck supper. Then, join us again at 11 PM as we ring in Christmas with candles around Christ's Table. This is a story we need to hear again and again. It never gets old, it only gets better!

Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year!
Pastor Doug

Local Mission

Thank you for your continued generosity with the Local Mission Fund! Those who are helped by this fund are extremely grateful for the extra support they receive during tough times. According to our policy, we are able to help each family or individual three times during a 12 month period, with up to $100 a time, depending on funds. We assist with food, utilities, rent, and, in emergency situations, a night at a hotel. Donations can be put in the offering plate with Local Mission Fund in the memo line or dropped off in the church office. Thank you!

During November, we were able to help 2 families or individuals from the local mission fund. We gave a total of $200.00 for food, rent and utilities.

Box of Blessings

Together we can cope, together we can hope. Federated is packing more Boxes of Blessing for the cancer center in Fergus.

Those receiving treatments are given a box that is stuffed with items they need and items they don't know that they will need. This list of needed items for the boxes was compiled by a nurse and a chaplain from the hospital. Items included in the box are: lip balm, cough drops, hard candy, chewing gum, back scratcher, non-scented lotion, Aquaphor healing ointment, Kleenex, hand sanitizer, thermometer, notepad & pen, game book, socks, pocket calendar, Federated reusable water bottle and ear buds. When the last boxes were delivered, we were told that they are GREATLY appreciated!

However, we are needing funds to pack more boxes. If you would like to donate a monetary gift to this local ministry, please contact the Federated Church office. The boxes truly are a blessing to those receiving them!

Christmas Blessing

May you be filled with the wonder of Mary, the obedience of Joseph, the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the determination of the magi, and the peace of the Christ child. Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit bless you now and forever.

Christian Education

December is here along with our annual Children’s Christmas Pageant! Letters went out to Kid’s Club and Sunday School youth (ages K-6) encouraging everyone to participate in this special worship event. Practices occur during regular Kid’s Club time as well as during Sunday School, with the pageant scheduled for December 16th during the 9:30am worship service. If you have any questions or would like to help in any way, please contact Karen at kmad@prtcl.com.

This Advent season, we are trying something new! As a way to continue the “Acts of Random Kindness” we did this fall, we are encouraging youth to bring in a non-perishable food item each week on Sunday morning collected during Sunday School. These donations go to the Fergus Falls Food Shelf and will be distributed to families in need during the holiday season. Let’s help our neighbors have a Merry Christmas!

In other news, our K-1 Sunday school classroom had a great transformation recently (thank you, Pete!) with a larger space, bright colors, and the addition of the children’s library. Come take a look at their classroom—it gives the kids and their teachers (Jona and Maddie) much-needed space for creative energy!

Guatemalan Mission Team Update

The Guatemala Mission team wants to thank EVERYONE who supported the Harvest Dinner and Silent Auction this past month! We raised a little over $3500 during the event! The youth did a great job serving and our kitchen help made a delicious meal! Soup sales in mid-November raised approximately $440, and with the popularity of this sale, we plan to do another soup sale, selling more Roasted Tomato Bisque, on December 16th during the Fellowship hour! We are so appreciative of our church family for getting behind our efforts!

Our stove funds are growing as well, with money raised for seven stoves. During the months of December and January we will continue to collect the “Noisy Offering”. On Christmas Eve, we will take in a special offering for stoves as well.

Just as important as raising funds for our trip, we ask for you to pray for our mission team as we get closer to leaving. We have a wonderful crew going, with several youth making their first journey to a country like Guatemala. Prayers for deepening faith, openness to others, willingness to participate in hard work, team harmony, and definitely safety will be necessary for the success of our exciting journey!

Confirmation

Confirmation is going strong! We have a terrific group of youth this year learning Bible stories and asking deep questions of faith. Please hold our confirmation students in prayer.
