“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” (John 14:1-3)

Joyce Berger, an ordained minister in the Christian Reformed Church, tells the story of visiting a woman for the first time and immediately feeling “at home” in her house. The woman offered Joyce gracious hospitality, but it was more than that. This woman was close in age to Joyce’s deceased mother and of a similar cultural background. The woman’s home and her manner of doing and saying things reminded Joyce of her mother and of the home in which she was raised.

In my own home there are connections to my past. The coffee mill and flower vase that belonged to my maternal grandmother. The china that belonged to my paternal grandmother. A desk and a clock from my maternal grandfather’s study. A bedroom set that my father had as a boy. Pictures, baking dishes, and many other items that remind me of “home.”

We are now in the season of going “home.” Consider the roller coaster of emotions the disciples experienced in a few short months: seeing their worst fears realized with Jesus arrested and crucified. Their confusion and fear displaced by overwhelming joy at the resurrection. Jesus dwelling with them again, their anchor, their comforting presence, their “home.” Then the ascension. For the disciples it seemed to be another loss. For Jesus, it meant going home. What joy there is in knowing that Jesus is going ahead to prepare rooms for us! And when we get there, it will not feel strange, but rather like the home we always craved.

In the meantime, to keep us connected with our true home and to serve as a reminder, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to dwell with us. The Holy Spirit made our world, our church, our hearts its temporary home, a window into our heavenly dwelling. Every time we gather at the Lord’s Table, we experience another glimpse of our glorious future. Yet, as we look around the table, we see empty seats. People are missing from our family and are still yearning for a place to call home. So, we join with the Holy Spirit’s work in calling others to come and dwell with us in the house of the Lord, to come and find their true home.

May God’s Holy Spirit bless you and keep you and bring you home!
Pastor Doug

Local Mission

Thank you for your continued generosity with the Local Mission Fund! Those who are helped by this fund are extremely grateful for the extra support they receive during tough times. According to our policy, we are able to help each family or individual three times during a 12 month period, with up to $100 a time, depending on funds. We assist with food, utilities, rent, and, in emergency situations, a night at a hotel. Donations can be put in the offering plate with Local Mission Fund in the memo line or dropped off in the church office. Thank you!

Wow! It's hard to believe we are already five months into 2021! With May arriving we shift into a different mode of programming, as we gear up for the summer.

Kidz Club

Kidz Club wrapped up its 2020-2021 season on April 28. We had SUCH a great year of learning, games, crafts, and fellowship! "God" was our theme: During the first half of the year we heard stories and lessons showing God's attributes, and in the second half we discovered many ways God communicates with His people. Our crafts ranged from clay pottery to designing pillowcases with Bible verses, and lots of creative opportunities in between. I am sad to close out this year but I can definitely say we are all excited for VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL in June!!

Middle School Youth Group

We began Middle School youth in March and will go through May 12. It is wonderful to have time for games and have great discussions with this youth group. We will make plans to get together over the summer for special activities, and I think we may have some up-and-coming helpers for VBS and beyond!

High School Youth Group

High School youth will also continue through May 12. We have such thoughtful and intelligent young people growing up here at Federated. It is a tremendous pleasure to meet with them each week! We will also be making plans to get together over the summer and looking forward to time with everyone!

Mark Your Calendars For These Christian Education Events

May 16 is Confirmation Sunday! Come join us at 9:30AM for worship as we welcome our confirmands into full membership of the Federated Church! A reception in the Fellowship Hall will follow the worship service.

May 16 is also the last day of Sunday School.

May 23 is Senior Recognition Sunday! Our congregation will be celebrating with our 8 high school graduates by recognizing and praying for them during 9:30AM worship, followed by a brunch in Fellowship Hall.

Vacation Bible School

VBS is set for June 21-25 from 9AM-12PM. Our theme is "Creating with God!" Prepare for fun worship, great games, and inspired art projects! You can sign up by printing off the form on our website under the "Resources" tab (top right), click "forms". You can also pick up a form in a purple folder outside the church office.

If you have questions or ideas to share, please contact Karen at kmad@prtcl.com!
