

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of September 18, 2016

You cannot be the slave of two masters. You will like one more than the other or be more loyal to one than to the other. You cannot serve God and money. LUKE 16:14 (CEV)

May the Lord who cares for the poor and needy, give you a heart for the needs of others. O God, help us to use our money in ways that serve you. Amen

Last week — In review

Sr. High Youth Group began on Wednesday with a pool party at the Skretvedts. Everyone had a blast swimming (even with the chillier temperatures!), eating good food, and seeing everyone again! Youth Group meets at 7:30pm on Wednesdays.

September 18, 2016: The fall worship schedule began, with worship services at 9am & 11am. Pastor Doug began a new sermon series on Covenants. He preached on the Covenant with Noah, found in Genesis 9:8-17. To read a copy of the sermon, please visit the church website. Sunday school classes began for K-6th graders, as well as Adult Sunday School. Adult Sunday School this session is a Confirmation refresher course with an informal discussion about important aspects on our faith and witness.

September 25, 2016: Sunday is the Stewardship kick-off! We will hear a minute-for-stewardship from Pam Phillips at both the 9am & 11am services. Pastor Doug will continue in the sermon series on Covenants with God's Covenant with Abraham from Genesis 12.

This week — Looking ahead
