

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of October 16, 2016

Jesus told his disciples a story about how they should keep on praying and never give up. LUKE 18:1

Dear God, help us to not lose heart but to be persistent in faith and hope and in the works of justice and peace. Amen

Last week — In review

Federated Church delivered Meals by Wheels last week, and will continue delivering this week. Thank you to all the volunteer drivers!

October 16, 2016: Pastor Doug continued in the Covenant sermon series with God's promise of a new covenant, found in Jeremiah 31:3, 32-34. Visit www.federatedff.org to read a copy of the sermon. The fellowship committee hosted a fall pie social during fellowship hour; thank you to everyone who provided pies!

October 23, 2016: Sunday is Dedication Sunday. We will gather for worship at 10am, with a Celebration Dinner to follow at 11am. All are invited! Please RSVP to the church office by Wednesday of this week.

This week — Looking ahead

The funeral service for David Grotberg is tomorrow, 1pm, at Crossroads Church. Visitation is tonight at Crossroads Church from 5-7pm, with a prayer service at 6:30pm. Space is limited at the funeral tomorrow; if you are able to go the visitation in lieu of the funeral, please do so. Please continue to keep the Grotberg family in your prayers.

No youth activities this Wednesday due to MEA break. This includes all confirmation classes, kids club, and all youth groups.

Eat pancakes to support Habitat for Humanity! Pancake fundraiser at Applebee's Saturday, Oct. 29th from 8am - 10am. Don't delay - get your tickets now! Tickets available before the event from Desta Hunt (218-770-7737). $7; 5 & under FREE.

Josue & Alyssa Pineda, formerly of the House of Hope, will be in town tomorrow (Tuesday, 10/18) evening. Anyone wanting to join them and others for dinner are invited to come to Pizza Ranch at 6:30pm in the back room.

Judy Friedrich's granddaughter, Avery Peterson, is continuing with treatment and appointments. If you would like to help them in their travelling, gas giftcards or restaurant giftcards for places along the way can be brought to the church office. Thank you!

Prayer requests

In addition to the people on our prayer list, please remember:
Russ & Renee Larsen's nephew, Luke.
