

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of May 4, 2020

Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. Acts 2:46-47a (NRSV)

God our Savior and Good Shepherd, keep us close to your care, and in our times of suffering may we trust in you. Amen.

Last week — In review

May 3, 2020: We worshiped online! Bev Richter was our lay reader and Pastor Doug delivered the sermon. The sermon was titled Unwritten Rules with the text from Acts 2:42-47. To watch past and current services, please visit www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

Quarantine Photos: We would love to see what you and/or your family have been up to over quarantine! Send us photos you took during quarantine, and we will share them on a worship video for the congregation to view. Please note that these photos will appear on our public YouTube channel. When you send us a photo, you give us permission to post your photo on our YouTube channel. Thank you for all the great submissions so far!

May Worship: We will not meet for worship at church on May 10th. However, our worship service will be available to watch on our website at www.federatedff.org.

Prayer requests

Please remember those on our prayer list.

We also have an item of praise:

Melissa Jaskiewicz (a friend of Molly Stoddard) has been on our prayer list for many months. Although she has one more chemo treatment to go, her tumor is dead and there is no cancer in her body anywhere! Praise God! Please continue to pray for Melissa. Pray for her last chemo treatment. Also pray for her broken back. Thank you!

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
