

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of May 29, 2017

"But the Holy Spirit will come upon you and give you power. Then you will tell everyone about me in Jerusalem, in all Judea, in Samaria, and everywhere in the world." ACTS 1:8 (CEV)

Glorious and ascended Lord, give us your Holy Spirit so that we can be your faithful witnesses in all the world. Amen

Last week — In review

May 28, 2017: On this Memorial Day weekend, we gathered for worship at 10am, followed by coffee hour at 11am. This is the first Sunday of the summer schedule, with one blended worship service at 10am. Pastor Doug preached on Joshua 4:4-7, Remember to Remember. To read a copy of the sermon, visit www.federatedff.org.

June 4, 2017: This Sunday, we will gather at Roosevelt Park (across from the Kennedy School) at 10am for Worship in the Park! In celebration of Pentecost Sunday, there will be BUBBLES! (Thanks, Truman Steinbrenner, for the idea!) Everyone is encouraged to wear red in celebration of Pentecost Sunday. This is also Communion Sunday. Pastor Doug will be preaching a sermon called Tiny Bubbles. Following the service, the mission committee will be serving muffins and coffee as a fundraiser for our 2017 Mission Initiative, Habitat for Humanity. We'll be staying after the service for a picnic in the park - bring your own picnic lunch, and stay and enjoy the park with Federated Family! **In the case of inclement weather, we will gather for worship at the church building at 10am.*
