

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of October 16, 2017

Go out to the street corners and tell everyone you meet to come to the banquet. MATTHEW 22:9 (CEV)

Lord Jesus, thank you for inviting us to the feast of heaven. Help us to respond with a spirit of welcome and generosity to others. Amen

Last week — In review

October 15, 2017: Over the past few weeks, we have worked together to donate our time, energy and monetary gifts in collecting hurricane clean-up buckets for Texas and Florida. Yesterday, we blessed these buckets before sending them to hurricane victims. With your contributions, we were able to send 88 clean-up buckets to hurricane victims. Thank you, Federated and the community, for your help. You are truly a blessing to those facing difficult times! Praise God!

October 15, 2017: We gathered together for the worship service at 9:30am. Sunday School and Coffee Hour followed at 10:30am. Pastor Doug preached the sermon titled: From Generation to Generation. To read a copy of this sermon, visit www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

Canceled Activities: There will be NO Youth Activities this Wednesday, October 18th due to MEA. Have a great break!

Bible Study: Sunday morning Bible Study in the Parlor is finishing Chapter 2 and beginning Chapter 3 of The Story next Sunday.

Mission Dinner: Sunday, November 5th is the Mission Dinner at 10:30am. The guest speaker this year is Stan Carignan from Habitat for Humanity. A free will donation will be taken. The Mission Committee will match gifts up to $500. A baked potato bar will be served as well.

We are still looking for people to help build this day. Habitat for Humanity is working on their next house. If you can help, please contact Stan Carignan at 218-841-2657 for dates and details or the church.

D&E is meeting Thursday, October 19th at 6:30pm

Prayer requests

In addition to the people on our prayer list, please remember: Jodie Nuss's Father. Prayers he has a successful surgery and recovery. Victims and emergency workers of hurricanes

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
