

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of November 2, 2020

"[F]or the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." Revelation 7:17

Almighty God, we thank you for joining us to the saints throughout the ages through our shepherd, Jesus Christ the Lamb of God. Amen.

Last week — In review

Sunday, November 1 We worshiped at 9:30am with Adult Bible Study and Sunday School following at 10:15am. During worship, we shared communion and remembered our members who passed away over the last year. Pastor Doug delivered the sermon titled The Cooperation Imperative with the text from 1 Thessalonians 2:9-13. To read a full copy of the sermon, please visit our website at www.federatedff.org.

Thank You!

Pastor Doug reminds us that in order to make our sanctuary available for in-person worship, we need to be united in our mask-wearing and safety behaviors. To keep our worshipers and our community safe please abide by these safety procedures when visiting or worshipping at Federated Church. Wear a face mask, sanitize your hands when you arrive, refrain from physical contact with others, stay spatially distant – 6 feet apart, sit in designated pews and at designated places around tables, allow our musicians to do the singing. With Covid-19 numbers on the rise, we need everyone's help to ensure we can maintain safe in-person worship services, Sunday school, and youth activities. Thank you for your cooperation.

Prayer requests

In addition to the people on our prayer list, please remember:

Please keep Carri Thompson, Gladys Carlson, and Yvonne Marts daughter Yvette Marts in your thoughts and prayers.

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
