

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of May 6, 2019

So, Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ACTS 9:17 (NRSV)

Last week — In review

May 5, 2019: We worshiped at 9:30am with fellowship at 10:30am. It was a very special Sunday at Federated! During the service, we baptized three children into the church: Nash Wendland, Lena Wendland and Jackson Cavalier. We also shared the Lord's Supper. Pastor Doug delivered the sermon titled Hefted Shepherds. To read a full copy of the sermon, visit our website at www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

Women's Bible Study will meet at 11:15am in the narthex tomorrow, May 7th.

Wednesday Activities: Both Bells and Choir are practicing this Wednesday. See you at our regular times! Remember, Kids Club and Youth Group are over for the school year.

Mary Milton is turning 90 on Thursday, May 9th. Happy Birthday Mary!

Habitat for Humanity's Women's Build: The 6th annual Women's Build is Saturday, May 11th. If you would like to volunteer, women are invited to the Habitat Warehouse at 421 West Fir in Fergus from 9am-12pm. Volunteers are building window and door headers/frames for Habitats next home project. All safety equipment, tools and materials are provided along with lunch for workers. Feel free to stay and help as long as you like. If you have questions, please call Habitat at (218)736-2905.

Sunday School continues through May 12th. On that Sunday, we will honor all volunteers who helped with children's and youth ministries this year. We will also hold a Trivia Challenge (Kids vs Adults) during the fellowship hour. Together, we will review our knowledge of Jesus' life, ministry and grace.
