

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of September 18, 2017

Peter came up to the Lord and asked, "How many times should I forgive someone who does wrong to me? Is seven times enough?" Jesus answered: "Not just seven time, but seventy-seven times!" MATTHEW 18:21-22 (CEV)

Dear God, we thank you for your never-failing love and forgiveness. Help us to show our gratitude with mercy to others.

Last week — In review

September 17, 2017: Sadie held a Bible Study for the Jr/Sr High youth Sunday Morning at 10:30am. We will continue with this study of John every Sunday. All youth are welcome!

September 17, 2017: We gathered together for worship at 9:30am. Sunday School and Coffee Hour followed the service at 10:30am. The sermon for the morning was titled Bring Nothing. To read a copy of the sermon, visit www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

Habitat for Humanity: It's time to build! Habitat for Humanity has broken ground on their next house. Federated Church has committed to being a covenant partner with them. This means we will give our time, money and energy to help them complete this project. There are some volunteer opportunities in September continuing through January. Volunteers are also needed to prepare food for workers on site. If you are interested, please contact Stan Carignan at (218) 841-2657.

Parent/Student Confirmation Meeting: Anyone with kids from 7th-9th grade is encouraged to attend. We will review times, retreats and sign ups Wednesday, September 20th at 5:30pm.

Adult Bible Study: We will be reading Chapter 1 of The Story next Sunday 10:30am.

Thursday Meetings: The Stephen Minister's Fall Greeting will be at 5pm and D&E will meet at 6:30pm.

Prayer requests

In addition to the people on our prayer list, please remember: Victims and emergency workers of the hurricanes.

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
