

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of July 31, 2017

So he told them, "Every student of the Scriptures who becomes a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like someone who brings out new and old treasures from the storeroom." Matthew 13:52 (CEV)

Dear God, bless us with your wisdom so that we may understand your word and live with faith, hope and love each day. Amen.

Last week — In review

Tailgate Party: Even though Federated experienced two losses at last Monday's softball game, the tailgate party was a winner. Thanks to those who made this event possible!

Lake Alice Block Party: On Wednesday, July 26, Federated Church was invited to a neighborhood block party at St. James Church. Following the party, a city council meeting was held discussing questions and concerns around Lake Alice. Both the party and meeting had a successful turnout. Those who came enjoyed meaningful fellowship. Thank you St. James Church for inviting Federated this year!

July 30, 2017: We gathered for worship at 10:00am followed by coffee hour at 11:00am. Pastor Doug continued with the Jonah series preaching on Jonah: Affirm God's Grace 2. To read a copy of the sermon, visit www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

Stephen Minister's Meeting CANCELED: The next meeting will be held at the regular time in September.

Runnigen/Hall Wedding: On Saturday, August 5, Emma Runnigen and Joseph Hall will be married at Federated Church.

Prayer requests

Please remember the people on our prayer list. Also, include those who have recently lost their loved ones in our congregation.

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
