

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of July 30, 2018

You are the light of the world. Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:14-16

Last week — In review

July 29, 2018: We gathered together for worship at 9:30am and fellowship at 10:30am. Maryjane Westra gave the sermon for the morning titled Don't Call Me A Missionary with the text Micah 6:8 and Isaiah 6:8.

This week — Looking ahead

You Are Invited: St. James Church invites you to attend their National Night Out block party August 7th, 2018 5-7pm. The main meal and beverages are provided, however they ask those attending bring salad and/or dessert to share. What is NNO? Visit the NNO Fergus Facebook page to learn more.

Funeral: Mike Makovsky's service is tomorrow, July 31st 2pm at Federated Church. Visitation is one hour prior to the service with lunch served after.

Have You Sent Your RSVP? If you plan on attending Western Presbyterian's Last Service August 12th, please remember to RSVP that you are coming.

Summer Sweets With Sadie: Jr and Sr High can meet up with Sadie Thursday, August 9th 3pm at Dairyland for some treats! Please let Sadie know if you can make it (218) 639-2137. Thank you!

Prayer requests

In addition to the people on our prayer list, please remember:

The Makovsky family during this difficult time

The Dent family as they travel

Marjan Schuetze

If you have a prayer request, please notify the church office.
