The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest." Mark 6:30-32

By now, you have probably heard that I am taking a three-month sabbatical this summer starting in June. Federated Church generously offers me this time every five years to rest, renew, and reimagine. I will be taking this time to rest proactively, read and write lesson plans, and dream for our church's future. The sabbatical isn't a vacation from ministry but rather a part of every active ministry.

Full-time ministry is demanding; it takes a spiritual and physical toll on a pastor. Lifeway Research reports that 1700 pastors leave the ministry every month! The most common reason for this exodus is burnout. It is a big job, which is why God established the sabbath. God first modeled the sabbath in Genesis 2:2-3, when God ceased working on the seventh day to rest. Jesus also modeled the sabbath when he went off many times to be alone with God. Jesus then commanded his disciples to "come away and rest" (Mark 6:31) as a part of their ministry. I am so grateful for a faith family that supports rest and renewal for their pastors.

I appreciate all the encouragement I received from so many of you telling me that I've "earned" this time to get away and rest. God did so much with us these last five years. We can look back and see the many blessing of God during the pandemic! I plan to use this sabbath time to build on that momentum, to gather new energy, and to develop a fresh vision.

The Deacons & Elders, church committees, and staff assisted into putting a plan into place that will not to lose any momentum while I am away. We have an exciting lineup of guest preachers and musical groups to lead us in worship. An Executive Team appointed by the Board of Deacons & Elders will supervise the staff and monitor the day-to-day ministry needs. Committees will continue to do their appointed work uninterrupted.

In my absence, I would like to challenge each of you as members of the body of Christ to be intentional with your spiritual gifts to build up the church. I am only one person among of many. Use this time to serve and volunteer if you see a need. Pray for our ministry this summer. Pray for our worship leaders and staff and committee members as they serve. Please pray for me, too. And don't forget to find time to rest! Summer is glorious in Minnesota: enjoy it! I will miss seeing you all, but we will be back together soon. May God bless you and the ministry at Federated Church.

Summer blessings,
Pastor Doug

Psalm 51:10-12

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit.

Signs of spring are finally starting to appear! Alleluia! Spring is a time to start fresh—to wash windows, sweep the doorstep and purge your closet. Sometimes our spiritual lives need a deep cleaning, too. As you refresh your space at the start of this new season, don't neglect the space inside—your spirit, the core of who you are. Here are three questions to ask yourself:

1. What needs to go?

Let's be honest, some things should go straight to the trash. We're talking about the broken, falling apart, cobweb covered this and that. The broken items that we put in a closet or the garage to take care of "someday."

We harbor guilt and shame and grudges and fear and mistakes and our brokenness in the untouched corners of our hearts, never to see the light of day. What if we unpacked it all and laid it before God? What if we actively said "Here you go, God. All the broken pieces of my life are yours now."? God is ready to take it all from you and give you a new start.

2. What can you give away?

It can be daunting, but also gratifying to reduce your possessions, the stuff that fills those closets and those boxes we haven't opened. Those items that we haven't used in years but still hold on to and can't bear to put in the donate pile.

What part of your faith life and story can you give to others? Which of your gifts can you use to love and serve your neighbors? Look for ways to tell your story of faith and Jesus' impact on your life with others. Look for ways to serve your neighbor as Jesus would serve.

3. What needs some love?

Spring cleaning doesn't mean we throw away or give away everything. Perhaps some things just need to be reorganized or dusted or spruced up or tidied up. Some things just need a little love and attention.

Our spiritual lives can usually use some tidying up too. Whether your faith life needs a fresh coat of paint or a total renovation, start with one thing at a time – maybe it's alone time with God in prayer. Maybe it is making a commitment to come to worship regularly. Maybe it is reading the Bible for a few minutes each day.

Wherever you begin, remember you are not spring cleaning alone. God is there—guiding you, helping you and encouraging you in each area of your life.

Happy Mother's Day this May!

Lord, on this day in which we honor mothers, may we love and cherish the special women who have born us, who have nurtured us, and who have prayed for our well-being. May our hearts overflow with gratitude to you, who formed and knitted each of us in a mother's womb. We pray you give each mom strength. We ask you to be the daily bread of tired mothers. May each mother find rest in you. Amen.

How can it already be May? Even though this felt like the LONGEST winter, it STILL is hard to believe we are venturing into the month of May! This is always a month of transitions in Christian Education, starting with wrapping up our weekly children's and youth ministries (Sunday school, Kidz Club, middle school and high school youth group), the graduating of our senior high school students, and moving into our summer plans.

Sunday School

This year our Sunday school classes took a journey through two very important portions of the Bible. The Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments. In the fall we studied the meaning behind the words in the Lord's Prayer, understanding that Jesus taught all of His disciples to pray in this way. We took a break in December in order to prepare and share our Christmas pageant with the congregation. After we returned from break we dived into the Ten Commandments, learning that it is God's grace that saves us. When we love God we show His love for Him and others by following these important commands. Our teacher volunteers (Jona Brown, Madalyn Dent, Kristian Fransen, Shelby Eckhoff, Karen Bush, Hollis Davenport and Cindy Spidahl) all do such a great job adapting the lessons to their class.

Kidz Club

Our last day of Kidz Club was on April 26. We completed a year of learning about "God's Story"—how God tells us about Himself through the people of the Bible. We heard so many stories this year about God's love for us, His power and how He uses the people who seek Him to do His work in the world. Our year began with God's creation of the world; we went through the stories of many of the special people featured in the Bible, including Abraham, Moses, the judges, some of the kings and prophets; leading up to the birth, life, death, and resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ. We ended the year talking about how WE are also a part of God's story. Our names may not be in the Bible, but God, through the Holy Spirit, still uses His people to tell His story to the world.

Middle School Youth Group

Our middle school students finished confirmation earlier this spring and began our weekly youth group gatherings. We are tackling various topics our youth are confronting and how our faith can inform and impact our daily lives. It was especially fun that on the last two Fridays of April we helped our Federated Church family with delivering Meals by Wheels. We are making plans during May to meet periodically throughout the first half of the summer—including encouraging our youth to assist at Vacation Bible School. Applications for student volunteering are available in the youth room and outside of the church office.

Senior High Youth Group

May is always a bittersweet time at our senior high youth group. We are so excited to see our seniors graduating and taking their next steps in life, and yet we know that our group will change and we will miss seeing them every week. This has been such a special group this year, with lots of youth bringing friends and spreading the word about our gatherings. The volunteer leaders, Hollis Davenport, Molly Stoddard, and Madalyn Dent, are truly committed to showing God's love and care to our youth, and it clearly makes an impact on the members. We will continue to meet periodically during the first half of the summer, and begin making plans for the fall.
