

The Monday Memo

Federated Church members look at the week ahead

Week of April 21, 2025

But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened. Luke 24:12

Gracious and Living God, give us ears to hear and believe the message of the resurrection and the voice to speak to others of Jesus victory over death. Amen.

Last week — In review

Thursday, April 17 was Maundy Thursday. John MacFarlane made his stew for supper at 5:30pm and we worshiped with communion at 7pm. Pastor Doug delivered the sermon, "Jesus Loved Them to the End", with a text from John 13:1-17.

Friday, April 18 was Good Friday and we worship at 7pm. Pastor Doug delivered the sermon, "Witness for the Execution", with a text from Hebrews 10:16-25.

Sunday, April 20 was Easter Sunday and we worshiped at 9:30am. Pastor Doug delivered the sermon, "A Grave Situation", with a text from John 20:21-18.

To read a full copy of all the sermon's, please visit our website at www.federatedff.org.

This week — Looking ahead

If you ordered Easter flowers you can pick them up at the church anytime this week. If anything is left we will give away or have to toss. The church hours are Monday-Thursday 10am-2pm and Friday 9am-noon.

The parlor and the library got new chairs a few week ago. If you would like any of the old ones they are up for grabs. You can come to the church and take what you want. We have them stored in the back Sunday School room.
